WHO WE ARE

Broman Enterprises is a leading flower grower and exporter committed to delivering premium-quality fresh-cut roses and floral products to customers across the world. Located in Kenya, we combine favorable growing conditions, modern cultivation techniques, and a passionate team to produce flowers that consistently exceed customer expectations.

Our dedication to quality begins in the greenhouse and continues through harvesting, grading, packing, and export. Every stem is carefully handled to ensure freshness, beauty, and long vase life upon arrival at its destination.

OUR STORY

The journey of Broman Enterprises began with a vision to share Kenya's world-class flowers with international markets while maintaining the highest standards of quality and service. Through dedication, continuous improvement, and investment in modern farming practices, we have built strong relationships with buyers who value consistency, reliability, and premium-quality products.

WHY CHOOSE US
